Thanks, Brian. Yep - I'm at urgent care right now for an ear infection.

If you have a document for me to sign, I'll check it out tomorrow.

Hi Kevin,

I popped in to your City Hall and they told me you went home sick. Hope you feel better.

I am still trying to get Troy to answer the question below.

I, also, dropped off an agreement signed by Darrell for the ALPR cameras. As soon as you sign them (assuming there are no changes needed) please let me know so that I can have my finance department give me a purchase order number to get things rolling along.

Take care,

Brian

Hi Brian,

Was the contractor able to figure out the electrical? With the electrical PVC piping coming out of the concrete, did they already lay the electrical wiring then?

Hi Troy,

Which format are the pictures in? I'm unable to open it.
